Preface.

THE Registers of Baptisms, Marriages, and Burials from 1599 to 1812 are contained in four volumes.

Register I. is a parchment volume stitched in a parchment cover. On the front of the cover is written: "No. I. | 1599 to 1715. | This Register contains the Baptisms | Marriages & Burials, indiscriminately | inserted during the above period as | the same occurred. | G. N. Smith, | Curate."

On the inside of the cover the following is written:—

"RECTORS OF GATTON.

R. Rande	1616
Edward Shove	from cir. 1616 to 1646
Benjamin Shove	from cir. 1648 to 1666

[Here follows a blank space.]

[Here follows a blank space.]

E. P. Larken	1878 [sic] to 1894
Alf ^d G. Rogers [The present Rector.—ED.]	1894 to "

The Register measures about 12½ inches in length by about 8 inches in width. It has suffered very much from the effects of damp, and several of the entries are very difficult to decipher.

On the back of the cover, the other way up of the volume, is printed in old text: "The Register Booke of | Gatton given by Raphe | Rand parson there 1604."

* The Rector of Gatton writes that J. C. Winter died in 1877; that William Paget was Rector 1809 to 1815; John Deake 1815 to 1827; and C. Hodgson 1827 to 1833.—ED.

Register II. is also a parchment volume stitched in a parchment cover.

On the front of the cover is written: "No. 2. |

Burials from 1st April 1715 to 1753. |

Marriages — 16 May — 1754."

On the back of the cover, the other way up of the volume, is written: "Baptisms from 1715 to 1754."

It contains entries of Briefs from 3 April 1715 to 5 April 1730.

This Register measures about 12½ inches in length by about 8¼ inches in width. It has also suffered from damp.

Register III. is likewise a parchment volume, but bound in rough calf.

On the front is a leather label, stamped in gold letters: "Gatton. | Register for Christenings | & Burials, 1754."

The entries of Burials end in 1811, and those of Christenings in 1812.

This Register measures about 9½ inches in length by about 7½ inches in width. It has suffered from mutilation.

The entries in Registers I., II., and III. have been, as far as possible, printed verbatim.

Register IV. is a paper volume, of the uniform kind supplied by the King's printers, bound in rough calf.

The first portion contains Banns, and the latter portion contains Marriages from 2 Nov. 1756 to 5 June 1812.

This Register measures about 14½ inches in length by 9½ inches in width.

The entries in this Register have been somewhat abbreviated in printing.

The Registers have been paged throughout for convenience of reference. All blank spaces are noted.

Everything within brackets [] or in foot notes will be understood as explanatory interpolations by the Editor.

Memoranda as to the Registers since 1812 have been added to the volume by the Editor.

The following particulars of the Church and Monumental Inscriptions, long since destroyed, are extracted from

“The Natural History and Antiquities of the County of Surrey,” vol. iv., pp. 222-4, London, 1718:—

“Near Mr. Newland’s [he was Lord of the Manor and one of the Representatives in Parliament] handsome Seat is the Parish-Church, which is very small, and has little worthy Regard in it, except that it was the Dormitory of the ancient and gentile Family of the Copleys.

On the Top of the Roof of the Chancel; 1624. | Tempus in omne manent tituli ejus templa serentis. | E.^R. S. | Qui dominum exaltat, nomen super æthera vivat. |

In the North Chancel, at the West End, on a white Grave-Stone, in Capitals, is this Inscription; Hic jacet Gulielmus | Copley [sic]. Obit 5. die | Julij 1623 | + | Ora pro me. |

On another Grave-Stone, near the former, in Capitals, is this Inscription; Hic jacet Margareta Coply, | Vidua Gulielmi Coply | Senioris, de Gatton, | Armigeri, obiit 30. die | Aprilis Anno 1655. |

On another Grave-Stone, like and near the former, in Capitals, is this Inscription; Hic jacet Domi- | nus Gulielmus Coply | Senior, de Gatton, | Armiger, obiit 22. die | Desembris [sic] Anno 1643. | Ætatis suæ 79. |

On another Grave-Stone near and like the former, in Capitals, is this following Inscription; Hic jacet Domina | Magdalena Coply, | Uxor Gulielmi Coply, | de Gatton, Armigeri. | Obit xxx^o die Augusti | 1619.

On another Grave-Stone, near and like the former in Capitals, is this Inscription; Hic jacet Johannes | Copley, 4^{to} die Decembris | 1619. | Hic jacet Johannes | Copley, Junior, Ar- | miger, et frater | Johannes Copley | . . . er ascripti obiit | decimo septimo | Junii Anno | 1669. | Ora pro me. |

On a Rail in Gold Letters, on a black Ground, on the South Side of the Church-Yard, is this Inscription;

Here lies the Body of John Walker of this Parish, who departed this Life the 21. of August 1712. aged 58 Y.

The Sick, diseased, wearied, and opprest,
Fly to the Grave for Refuge and for Rest:
Let then this sacred Earth my Body close,
And no rude Hands its Quiet interpose.”

The earlier view of the Church is from a scarce plate circa 1809, privately printed by Mr. Bryant (referred to on p. xci of the Appendix to vol. iii of Manning and Bray). The later one is from Cracklow's "Surrey Churches," circa 1823.

The Editor wishes to record his sincere thanks to the Rev. Alfred G. Rogers, the Rector, for the facilities he has kindly afforded him in making the transcript, and for his permission to print it.

The Indexes Nominum and Locorum are the gratuitous work of A. W. H. Clarke, Esq., to whom many acknowledgments are due.
